裏

One schedule is required for each individual, and the head or manager of the household shall prepare all the necessary schedules bearing in mind these rules:

- (a) Return every person, whether or not of the family, who was found present in the household at midnight of September 30—October 1.
- (b) Return also such a person as is expected to return to the household within the 1st of October, after being at the said midnight either out of doors or at night work, night service or the like in a place where there exists no household.
- (c) A person who was at the said midnight in a train, tram-car or otherwise travelling on land, or on shipboard where there exists no household, shall be returned, if such personal condition was anticipated, as being at the said midnight present in the household where he was found last prior to the time; and if not anticipated, as being at the said time present in the first household at which he arrived within the morning of the census day.

Directions for Filling up the Schedule

The head or manager of the household shall fill up those numbered blanks 1—6:

1. Name—If not named yet, enter "not named".
2. Sex—For male, mark against "Male"; and for female, against "Female".
3. Date of Birth.
 - (a) Write the year and the month of birth.
 - (b) If the month is unknown, write "unknown" in the corresponding space.
 - (c) If the year is unknown, enter the estimated age as ".....years".
 - (d) A foreigner may state according to the calendar of his own country.
4. Marital Condition—Mark against "Single", "Married", "Widowed", or "Divorced", as the person may be.

Having filled up the blanks 1—4 of each schedule, make sure that every entry is complete and correct, and then check together all the schedules to be delivered by the household. After that on each schedule under 5 enter the total of the schedules and the number of each, and finally under 6 sign your name and affix your seal. Deliver the completed schedules to the enumerator when he calls, and should he ask any questions about the entries, give definite and distinct answers.
