

1988 HOUSING SURVEY QUESTIONNAIRE I

October 1, 1988

Designated Statistics No. 14

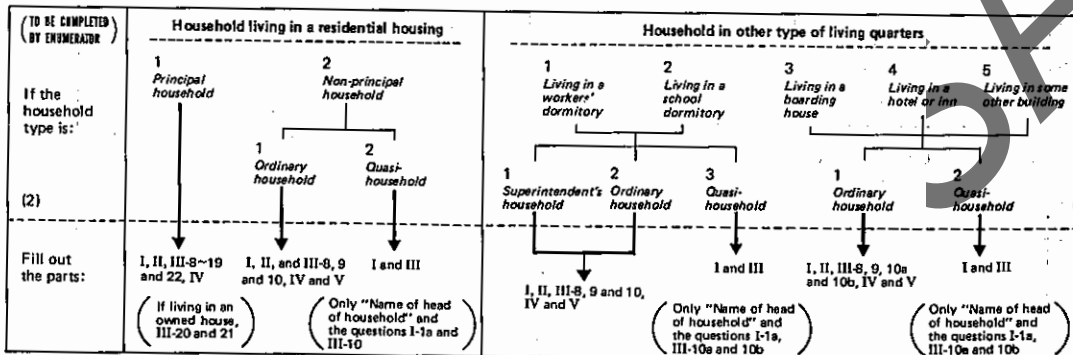

Statistics Bureau
Management and Coordination Agency
Government of Japan

On the Housing Survey

- The Housing Survey is to be taken throughout Japan as of October 1, 1988.
- The Housing Survey, one of the most important statistical surveys in Japan, has been conducted to obtain fundamental data for housing policies every five years since 1948.
- The Housing Survey is designed to give a clearer picture of housing conditions and their regional variations throughout Japan.
- The results of the Housing Survey are used as basic data for a variety of undertakings planned and executed by the central or local governments, such as housing projects, city planning, regional development planning, and environmental programs.
- You are requested to report on your household and housing conditions. Please fill out the questionnaire before the enumerator will visit you again to collect it.
- Your answers are confidential, under the Statistics Law. This questionnaire is used only for statistical purposes, that is, for providing statistical figures through combining your answers with answers from other people.
- Please answer the questions on Pages 2 and 3 to the best of your knowledge.

Please read this before filling out the questionnaire

- The questionnaire is divided into five parts (I, II, III, IV and V on Pages 2 and 3). The parts to be filled out differ, depending on your type of household.
 - General household, living in residential housing (including a person who lives alone in a house or apartment) → Fill out the parts I, II, III-8-19 and 22, IV and V.
 - Households of two or more family members living as boarders or lodgers, or living in dormitories. → Fill out the parts I, II, III-8, 9 and 10, IV and V.
 - Quasi-households (boarders or lodgers living alone, or persons living in dormitories without families) → Fill out the part I and III. (Only "Name of head of household" and the questions I-1a, III-10a and 10b)
- Our representative will indicate your type of household below with the relevant survey parts to be filled out.

- The enumerator will call on you to collect this questionnaire at around a.m. on October 1, 1988. Please fill this out by that time.
- If you have any questions, please ask the enumerator or the city, town or village office.
